G'bread house contest slated in Nacogdoches

The 3rd annual Gingerbread Homes for the Holiday contest, sponsored by Commercial Bank of Texas and The Skoop, will take place in December in Nacogdoches.

Entries will be judged on overall appearance, neatness, creativity and best use of materials.

Categories will include adult and children.

Gingerbread homes must be dropped off at the Nacogdoches Convention & Visitors Bureau by 5 p.m. Dec. 7. Deadline for entry forms is on Dec. 7.

Judging will take place Dec. 8, and all works will be on display at the bureau Dec. 9-31.

For a complete list of rules and a contest entry form call the CVB at 936-564-7351 or visit nineflagsfestival.com.

Silence for the Unborn

The Sixth Annual Pro-Life Day of Silent Solidarity was observed at the Rockwall Christian School on Tuesday, Oct. 20. Hundreds of thousands of students across the country refuse to speak on Oct. 20 each year as they stand in solidarity with those who are killed every day by abortion. Rockwall Christian Academy students and staff are taking their stand by also participating in the event.
